

A purple flower is in the top right corner, resting on a sandy surface. In the background, there is a document with cursive handwriting and some printed text, including the words 'Ante mí, Marcelo Ricardo' and 'Notario Público con'.

A Brides Guide To Getting Married in Costa Rica

www.crluxury.com

A Brides Guide to Getting Married in Costa Rica

Let's start with some of the basics. Here are my top ten reasons to get married in Costa Rica.

1) Costa Rica is absolutely beautiful

As the sun sets over the ocean, and the wind blows gently through the lush mountains, you will never imagine getting married anywhere else.

2) It's incredibly romantic

I had never known true romance until I said I-do under the setting sun and evening's cool breeze.

3) It's Unforgettable

Neither you, your future husband or your family and friends will ever forget your wedding night. In fact, they will be talking about it for years!

4) It is fun!

No matter what kind of wedding you plan, with romance in the air, and a vacation mentality, you and your guests are going to have the time of your lives here in Costa Rica.

5) Less Stress

With the help of a great wedding planner, you will have the ability to plan the wedding of your dreams, minus the stress often had when planning a wedding at home. Which brings me to #6.

6) More for your money

You can plan an amazing, luxurious wedding within a reasonable budget. I was able to plan my wedding with a wedding planner, elegant orchid arrangements and a surf and turf entree, for much less than if I had my wedding at home.

7) It's Legal

While many destinations make international weddings difficult, Costa Rica works with the bride and groom to insure a legal, hassle free marriage.

8) Your honeymoon

Your honeymoon will not only be beautiful and romantic, it will be stress free. When you wake up the morning after your wedding, you will already be in paradise.

9) It's more than a wedding

It's an experience of a lifetime. You and your guests will have the chance to see and experience all Costa Rica has to offer, and there is something here for everyone!

10) Your wedding will be the most wonderful day of your life

You may now be asking, where did I get all this information? The answer is, I got married in Costa Rica a year and a half ago, at the Los Sueños Resort & Marina. Since then I have moved to Costa Rica from the United States, Philadelphia to be exact, and I am working with a team of professionals to help insure that other brides can have the wedding of their dreams here in Costa Rica. In order to do this, I will be going over everything you need to know to plan an amazing wedding in this beautiful, fun and romantic country.

In the first section you will find direct, practical information for all your wedding needs. This section was compiled through research and with the help of Costa Rica wedding planners, that have been working and planning weddings here for over 15 years.

Throughout section two, you will also find important information on getting married in Costa Rica, but it is based on my recent experience as a bride, who at the time was still living in the United States and dealing with the challenges of a destination wedding, far from home.

For additional information and the complete GUIDE, please call CR Luxury at 866.525.2188 or email me, Susan at susan@crluxury.com.